ORDINANCE NO. 2008-62

AN ORDINANCE AMENDING PART ONE – ADMINISTRATIVE CODE, TITLE ONE – GENERAL PROVISIONS BY THE CREATION AND ESTABLISHMENT OF CHAPTER 105 – DISTRICTS AND BOUNDARIES OF THE CODIFIED ORDINANCES OF THE CITY OF WILLOUGHBY HILLS AND DECLARING AN EMERGENCY.

WHEREAS, Section 3501.18 (A) of the Ohio Revised Code states: “The board of elections may divide a political subdivision within its jurisdiction into precincts, establish, define, divide, rearrange, and combine the several election precincts within its jurisdiction, and change the location of the polling place for each precinct when it is necessary to maintain the requirements as to the number of voters in a precinct and to provide for the convenience of the voters and the proper conduct of elections. No change in the number of precincts or in precinct boundaries shall be made during the twenty-five days immediately receding a primary or general election or between the first day of January and the day on which the members of county central committees are elected in the years in which those committees are elected. Except as otherwise provided in division (C) of this section, each precinct shall contain a number of electors, not to exceed one thousand four hundred, that the board of elections determines to be a reasonable number after taking into consideration the type and amount of available equipment, prior voter turnout, the size and location of each selected polling place, available parking, availability of an adequate number of poll workers, and handicap accessibility and other accessibility to the polling place.”; and

WHEREAS, the voting districts within the City of Willoughby Hills have been predicated upon the boundaries of its voting precincts defined by the Lake County Board of Elections through the number of electors within the City; and

WHEREAS, the Lake County Board of Elections has advised and encouraged the City of Willoughby Hills to set forth by Ordinance, the boundaries of said voting districts.
