

St. Noel Church is now sponsoring a clothing drop off shed as a fundraiser and service to the community. Recently, St. Pauly Textile installed one of their clothing collection sheds (pictured below) at St. Noel Church for the community to use as a drop off for clothing. The clothing will be distributed all over the United States and world to those who can use it. The St. Noel Social Justice Fund will in turn receive $40 for every 1,000 pounds of clothing that is donated.

This program keeps clothing out of the landfill, helps out those in need, and furthers the mission of St. Noel Church through funding.

St. Pauly is a family-owned company based in Upstate NY and is an A-plus rated member of the Better Business Bureau. St. Pauly collects useable clothing, shoes, sneakers, belts, purses, linens, blankets and drapes. In 2012, more than 59 million clothing garments were distributed to an estimated 7.5 million people all over the world through the St. Pauly program.

St. Pauly currently has over 700 clothing drop off sheds throughout NY and parts of PA, CT, MA, OH and VT. For the complete list of sheds and more information about St. Pauly, visit <http://www.St-Pauly.com>
