

MAYOR'S REPORT
NOVEMBER 2009

By Robert M. Weger

November has been a busy month for the City of Willoughby Hills.

Election Day brought us excellent results as we passed our much-needed Road Levy and reappointed four of our Council members who were unopposed this election. I look forward to continue working with our reappointed Council members, Dave Reichelt, Dave Fiebig, Chris Biro and Nancy Fellows, along with our other Council members Kevin Malecek, Frank Germano and Ray Somich for the betterment of the City of Willoughby Hills. The passage of the Road Levy means our city services will continue to be strong for our residents. With the price of salt, construction materials and equipment constantly going up in price, this levy will assure us that we will have what we need to provide good services to our community. Thank you for your confidence by voting "Yes" on the levy and reappointing our Council team.

Veteran's Day was well received by our city, with many members coming out to enjoy a beautiful fall day to remember our veterans. Larry O'Donnell put together an outstanding program and I personally enjoyed the speakers and musicians.

The Art Gallery Dedication was attended by approximately two hundred people. It was so nice to see everyone come out to enjoy this new addition to our Community Center. The art will be changed on a monthly basis. Many local artists will then be able to display their work. Many of the artists will also be selling their wares. This is a great opportunity for our residents to get out to see a great display of art close to home. Thanks again to John Davis and Councilman Dave Reichelt for making this dream of many artists a reality.

As I close my report for this month, I plan to enjoy a quiet Thanksgiving at home. I hope any of you who are traveling have a safe and happy Thanksgiving. It certainly is a great time to reflect on the many blessings we have in our lives. I hope everyone takes time to recognize the many gifts we have as residents of the City of Willoughby Hills and as Americans. Best wishes as you celebrate Thanksgiving with your family and friends.
